

Arctic NefteGas Stroi

Limited Liability Company

QUALITY POLICY

Arctic NefteGas Stroi, Limited Liability Company – a Company operating in Sakhalin region providing services on steel structures and pipe spools fabrication for oil and gas industry, production and civilian branches.

Possessing highly qualified production potential and personnel, the Company mainly focuses on manufacturing of a competitive product, rendering competitive services and meeting needs and requirements of Clients at maximum possible level.

OUR MISSION:

- To assure qualitative and safe construction products compliant with requirements of the Client as well as compliant with Russian and international requirements.

OUR STRATEGY:

- Preserve existing and discover new markets for products release.
- Improve quality of manufactured products based on requirements and expectations of the clients.
- Retain work team, maintain favorable psychological climate, which will enable timely problem detection and its resolution.

Management established the following principal directions for Policy implementation:

Improve company's operating efficiency, its competitiveness considering interests of our Clients, shareholders and work team. Systematic analysis of current and perspective requirements and expectations of Clients as well as their satisfaction with our products and services provided.

Fulfilling requirements and constant improvement of Quality Management System efficiency based on ISO 9001:2015.

Regular personnel training and qualification upgrade.

Assimilation of new and improvement of existing production technologies.

Development of Company's facilities – modification and technical upgrade, new machinery and equipment procurement.

Building mutually beneficial relationships with suppliers based on trust and partnership.

Management of ANGS, LLC undertakes responsibility for implementation of this Quality Policy and shall ensure all personnel of the Company understand and support the Policy.

General Director

A.S. Gimbal